An accredited member of the American Animal Hospital Association, Countryside is an official sponsor of Animal Planet's Puppy Bowl VI, and will be hosting a "tail" gating party on February 6, 2010 from 11am - 1pm. This party offers an opportunity for all two and four-legged football fans to celebrate the human-animal bond and meet our hospital staff who will be available to give hospital tours and answer pet care questions.

The Puppy Bowl "tail" gate party is an opportunity to explore ways your pet can live a longer and healthier life. Countryside looks forward to hosting all its furry fans.

In conjunction with the "tail" gate party, Countryside will have a pet costume contest. Pets all shapes and sizes will walk down the gridiron to show off their football spirit. Pet owners are also encouraged to tour the hospital facility and receive free first aid tips, charts and information concerning pets. Snacks and beverages will be provided. Visitors can test their football knowledge by entering the hospital's football trivia contest for a chance to win a $50 gift card to www.NFLshop.com.

Established in 1933, the American Animal Hospital Association (AAHA) is the only organization that accredits veterinary practices throughout the U.S. and Canada for dedication to high standards of veterinary care. Only 15 percent of all small animal veterinary practices in the U.S. have achieved AAHA Accreditation. In order to maintain accredited status, Countryside Veterinary Hospital must continue to be evaluated regularly by the association's consultants.
